Selectmen's Meeting

COMPUTER DISCUSSION

Robert Faye, computer expert of Old Colony, conferred with Selectmen regarding the town's service. He said he was hurt to read that the Mattapoisett Selectmen are considering other alternatives to his service for which he had received a recent citation from the Selectmen.

The Selectmen reassured Mr. Faye. Chairman John DeCosta said that in addition to Old Colony, the Board had talked to 2 firms in a preliminary, exploratory nature as part of an education process for themselves to see what might be available and how such services compared.

Selectman Frank Suzan told Mr. Faye that it is costing the town $11,500 per year for present computer service and the Selectmen have a duty to see that the town obtains the maximum effect for this money. As part of this duty, he stated, the Selectmen are looking at other programs in order to obtain costs and see that the taxpayers of Mattapoisett go the best route in municipal computer technology. "We can't make the best decision by just looking at Old Colony", he said. He advised Mr. Faye that if he is the salesman for the Old Colony computer system he should get together with the School Committee and fix cost of lines and terminals.

Mr. Faye replied that the town is getting service now that is 10% of the cost of outside service. He said the town is getting $14,000 of services for $2,000.

Selectman James Huntoon speculated that if the town is now spending $11,000 per year it might be that the money could be put toward the purchase of self-contained equipment to do the work in the Town Hall. If that were the case, he said, the town would have a service contract and outside people with the expertise and interest to work with Town Hall people in a training program on the equipment.

Mr. Suzan told Mr. Faye that Old Colony is the service that Mattapoisett is using but that if the Selectmen find something better that would be the way to go.

A meeting was set for April 26th at 7:30 p.m. for this presentation.

WANT AGREEMENT UNCHANGED

The Selectmen discussed a memo of the draft of a proposal to change the policy on admission to Old Colony Vocational-Technical High School which they decided not to recommend. The proposal would allow Old Colony to take in non-district students if district towns don't reach the minimum enrollment quotas or at "any permissable time". At present, if the member towns do not fill the school to capacity, then Old Colony can seek outside students with the consent of the district towns.

Mr. DeCosta stated that the town now has an agreement that serves Mattapoisett well and the Selectmen want to keep it. "We would not recommend this change", he said.

The Selectmen are concerned that a change would tend to reduce the control of the town over admissions and could overload the school which was built for 535 capacity and now has an attendance of 596 or 597.

Mr. DeCosta stated that the Board was concerned with retaining the slots available for filling by the member towns.

The memo was from Supterintendent John T. Oliveira, passed to the Board from an Old Colony Committee member. It will be discussed at the next Old Colony School Com-

Mr. Huntoon said that he thought it appropriate to have Mr. Faye lay out what has been done so far. He asked, "We have spent a lot of money. Are we any closer to having a complete municipal package?"

Mr. Faye offered to come back with an alternative program and suggested that perhaps Mattapoisett could share a program of software with a neighboring town to lower costs.

Mr. Suzan stated that the Selectmen have to be sure that they have a responsiveness that would assure that someone could be on the spot when help is needed.

Mr. Faye said that he had written 7 new programs for the town this year and would be glad to return with a written resume to mittee meeting. Psssage would require a vote of the town meetings of all towns in the Old Colony District.

CHICKEN CLAIM

Selectmen differed on payment of a claim for payment for a chicken killed by a dog. Formerly, the County had the responsibility of payment of such claims. Due to a recent change, Mattapoisett is now responsible.

Selectmen Frank Suzan did not favor the payment of the claim for a chicken owned by Kathy Jackie of River Road. She filed for payment of the chicken killed by an unknown dog. Mr. Suzan said that before the town set such a precedent it should be determined if the chicken was killed in a protected yard or if it was running loose. He said that if the chicken were loose it should not be the responsibility of the town. Executive Secretary Carol Adams said that the money comes out of the dog tax account and claims are a rarity. The Selectmen agreed to pay the $2. claim by majority vote.

DOG OFFICER RESIGNS

Dog Officer Paul Silveira sent a letter to the Board of Selectmen stating that he will not seek reappointment as dog officer due to increased demands on his time.

REAPPOINTMENT

George White was reappointed as Veterans' Agent for a two year term to July 1, 1984.

The Mattapoisett Board of Health opened bids and awarded a 3-year rubbish collection contract to Oxford Rubbish, 72 Sycamore Street, Fairhaven. Mr. John J. Medeiros was present and furnished the Board with a letter of credit from the National Bank of Fairhaven to guarantee performance.

Bill to Change Rte. 6

Legislation filed by Senator William Q. MacLean, Jr. (D-Fairhaven) which would require the State Department of Public Works to return to a pattern of four travel lanes on Route 6 in Mattapoisett and Marion was passed in the Senate on April 4th.

Senate Bill 1838 was filed by Senator MacLean after he and town officials were frustrated in attempts to persuade state and federal highway officials to return to the previous, safer system from the recent two lane pattern.

The bill was passed in the Senate on a voice vote with no opposition and was sent to the House.

Rochester Girls' Softball

There is a good possibility this summer for the formation of one or two girls' softball teams from Rochester, which would include girls completing grades 4-8. Mattapoisett has given us a preliminary go-ahead (pending formal approval from their town board) to participate in their summer modified fast-pitch program for girls.

There are two games per week held at 6:15 p.m., scheduled Monday through Friday. The season starts after school lets out in June and continues through the second week of August. Each team would consist of girls from each grade level, and all team members must play in at least two innings. If the team or teams from Rochester play without a sponsor, there would be a cost of about 20.00 per person to cover costs of equipment, hats and shirts, and umpire fees.

Each team would consist of approximately fifteen girls.

At this point we need to give Mattapoisett some idea of interest level in the program. If you have a girl who would be interested in participating in this softball program, call Elaine Stewart at 763-8777 to get her name put on a preliminary list. We also need to have adults who are willing to get involved as coaches, assistant coaches, sponsors, or parent helpers.

TEAM RANKS 9th IN ATLANTIC-PACIFIC LEAGUE

The Old Rochester Regional Math Team ranks 9th in New England in the Atlantic-Pacific Mathematics League after five meets. With a total of 381 schools competing nationwide and in Canada, the team from ORR ranks in the top 1/3 with one meet remaining. This is the first year of competing in this particular league and the team is just getting used to the type of questions asked, said Mr. Cameron, the advisor. Next year we will do better.

Leading scorers for ORR are: Arlene Haskell, Carmen Gracia, Diane Cook, Debbie Brewster, and Joe LeBlanc. The topics covered include: Number Theory, Analytic Geometry, Advanced Algebra, Probability and Trigonometry.

ORR Chess

The Chess Team finished its season with a 3-2 win over New Bedford High School to take the playoffs by a 2-1 margin. ORR was led by wins from Bill Smirnov, Tom Shire, and Captain Jeff Starecheski playing boards 5, 4 and 1 respectively. In the playoffs (a best two-out-of-three) ORR went down to defeat in the first match by a score of 4½ - ½ with only Jeff Starecheski salvaging a draw playing at board one. Then, on the brink of elimination, ORR charged back to defeat New Bedford (away) by a resounding 5-0 score to even the series and then narrowly defeated New Bedford with some very skilled play by Starecheski, Shire, and Smirnov.

Mr. Cameron, team advisor, believes that, although the team will lose John Arsenio and Charles Mendell to graduation this year, they will have enough underclassmen to remain at the top of the league for a few more years to come. The players from ORR contributing to this year's success are:

"What better way to attract support and participation for our newly renovated Art Center than to celebrate our new season with one of America's truly unique and traditional art forms, jazz, " says Lydon.

Other jazz greats performing at the Festival will include Dick Johnson, playing clarinet, tenor and alto saxophone; Paul Schmeling, pianist for the "Swing Shift"; Nick Brignola, 1981 Grammy Award nominee on baritone saxophone; and Scott Robinson, faculty member at Berkley School of Music playing a wide range of instruments from the cornet to the double-belled euphonium.

WESTFIELD CHORUS TO PERFORM IN WAREHAM

"They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Holy Spirit gave them utterance." (Acts 2:4)

Perhaps that which keeps many a magician going is the very Pentecostal Spirit referred to above, for surely the IS power to be shared from the wonderful ministry of music.

Music is one of the more eloquent tongues provided us by our Lord. This eloquence and power will be shared Friday, April 15th, at 7:30 p.m. at The First Congregational Church in Wareham when Dr. Theodore C. Davidovich will conduct a group of some 30 members known as the Westfield State College Chorale & Madrigal Singers. Admission is free, though a freewill offering will be taken.

We have several reasons to be proud of hosting this concert of sacred works, spirituals and folktunes. We shall have the privilege to hear live a chorus which has been featured on Springfield TV, invited in 1981 to participate in the world premiere Irish Symphony concert with the Springfield Symphony Orchestra, and has been invited to participate in the Cork International Choral & Folk Festival in Ireland. One member of this select chorus, Jennifer Thomas, is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lanoue, members of the church. Don is a member of the Senior Choir there.

Church in Wareham will wrap up a whirlwind, two-day tour by the WCS group. On April 14th they will perform at Quabbin Regional High School, Wachusett RHS, Southbridge HS, and at the University of Connecticut. April 15th will find them singing at West Bridgewater HS and at Falmouth HS before their appearance in Wareham.

The many people graciously devoting time and energy to this big event - Ted and the chorus itself, publicity, refreshments, and of course each of us at the church - testify to the very utterance bestowed us by the Holy Spirit...through Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior...GODSPEED!!!

Dr. Davidovich, conductor, is a friend of the church organist/choir director, Robert M. Caldwell. Ted earned a B.A. from California State University at San Jose, M.M. from the New England Conservatory of Music, and D.M.A. from Stanford University. Ted has served on several college and university faculties including 6 years at Bridgewater State College, where Mr. Caldwell served as Dr. Davidovich's accompanist. (Last summer Ted conducted New England Youth Chorale during its European tour. He has conducted festival choruses in Texas, California, New Hampshire, Maine, and Massachusetts, and he is past president of the Massachusetts American Choral Directors' Association (ACDA).)

Until recently wetlands such as swamps and marshes had been badly abused and misunderstood by many people. Growing concern brought about legislation and laws to protect and preserve our dwindling wetlands. The D.E.Q.E. A second follow-up will be undertaken at a later date.

Glass Museum

The New Bedford Glass Museum is sponsoring a trip to the Harvard Botanical Museum, home of the famous Blaschka Collection of glass plant models. Created almost 100 years ago by the Dresden craftsmen, Leopold Blaschka and his son Rudolf, the more than 700 species of plants reproduced in glass form the core of a study collection for Harvard University students.

The motorcoach will leave the Glass Museum parking lot on Monday, May 16th, at 10:15 a.m., returning to New Bedford at approximately 5 p.m. The excursion will include a guided tour of the Blaschka Collection by Glass Museum Director Janie Chester Young. Also included will be a buffet luncheon at Harvard Square's Joyce Chen restaurant.

World renowned for their beauty and botanical accuracy, the Blaschka glass models were added to the Botanical Museum Collection in the 1880's. They were presented to Harvard by Elizabeth and Mary Ware as a memorial to Dr. Charles Eliot Ware. Because the Blaschkas trained no apprentices the glass models are virtually haven born Standard Oil magnate who was the town's greatest benefactor; and to that of Miss Keller, who was deaf, dumb, and blind, and whom Mark Twain called "that astounding girl" and "one of the most outstanding products of all the ages".

Rogers first met Miss Keller when she was only 14 years old when, accompanied by Mark Twain, he attended a reception for her at the home of Lawrence Hutton in New York City in the winter of 1894. Rogers was impressed by what he called Helen's "sixth sense", and her ability to "receive and understand" what of course "she could not see or hear".

In 1896, in a letter, Mark Twain pleaded with Rogers to aid in financing Helen's education at Radcliffe College. Recalling his admiration of "that marvelous girl", Rogers agreed to fund her entire college education and later presented her with an endowment for life.

Helen was eternally grateful. In later years, she dedicated one of her books to Rogers and was an occasional visitor to his 85 room Fairhaven mansion, the last such visit occurring in the summer of 1908. On that occasion she praised Rogers' "home, the beautiful yacht, the dear grandchildren and buildings with which you have enabled your town to live up to its name".

Consequently, the Fairhaven Lions' Club Pancake Breakfast honors a man, who, like the sponsoring organizations, saw fit to help generously in improving the welfare

March of Dimes

MARCH OF DIMES WALKAMERICA

It's the biggest "athon" of them all, and it's happening all across the country. Communities throughout southeastern Massachusetts will participate in the annual March of Dimes WalkAmerica, a mammoth fund-raising event in which more than a million Americans will put on their walking shoes to raise money to fight birth defects.

Mrs. Delores Vasconcellos, Coordinator of the New Bedford Area Superwalk, has announced that the 25 kilometer walk will begin at the National Guard Armory on Sycamore Street in New Bedford at 9 a.m. and end back at the Armory. Over 700 walkers are expected to participate in this year's event. "Last year," says Mrs. Vasconcellos, "over 700 walkers raised $21,000."

"Be A Star" is the theme of this year's Superwalk. The March of Dimes recognizes all walkers as "Stars" for their fund-raising effort. Birth defects are this country's number one child health problem, striking 250,000 babies every year. Money collected from Walk pledges will assist March of Dimes programs of research, medical services and education.
